Reasons Clients Choose

Linda K. Krei

As Their Business Coach

- 1 Results ... Linda has guided teams and organizations in achieving their strategic initiatives through team development, process improvement, process redesign, leadership development and coaching.
- 2 Trust ... Linda always establishes an environment of trust with her clients and gains respect by honoring it.
- 3 Pride ... Good enough isn't ... Linda encourages and works with her clients to take pride in themselves and their business to become the best version of who they are.
- 4 Value ... Under promise and over deliver ... Linda makes sure she always does more and delivers more than expected, encouraging this trait in her clients also.
- 5 Knowledge ... Having a philosophy of 'Continuous Improvement, Constant and Never Ending, Linda invests time and money in personal development demonstrating the return on that human investment,, and encourages her clients to do the same.
- 6 Experience ... Past and present work with many businesses and people feeds into an immense base of business and personal development knowledge which is reflected in the results Linda's clients experience.
- 7 Leadership ... Linda coaches business leaders to be the best leader they can be – and the rewards for the business owner, the business success and the team involved are measurable.
- 8 Fun ... Work hard, play hard. There's a time to be serious and get things done, yet you also have to balance it with a lot of fun and enjoyment, especially in rewarding and celebrating successes.
- 9 Commitment ... Linda gives her 100% commitment and 100% support to keeping her clients focused on the goals they set, even through the tough times when clients doubt themselves.
- 10 Action ... George S Patton said 'A good plan violently executed now is better than a perfect plan executed next week'. Knowledge is meaningless if action isn't taken, Linda focuses on client execution of the right activities, taking actions that move them one step closer to where they want to be.
- 11 Success ... ActionCOACH's vision is 'World Abundance though business Re-education'. Linda applies this vision to every coaching engagement and of course Linda's success is measured by her client's success ...as they pursue their business goals in alignment with achievement of their personal goals.
